

Program

Thursday, 25 July 2019
8:00 am	Registrations Open
9:00 am	Welcome Welcome to Country
9:10 am	Official Opening Speeches
9:30 am	Housekeeping
9:40 am	Keynote 1 Professor Beau Kilmer, Senior Policy Researcher, RAND Corporation Harm Reduction: Supervised consumption rooms & heroin assisted treatment.
10:25 am	Plenary 1 Jackie Huggins, AM FAHA, Order of Australia and Fellow of the Australian Academy of Humanities, Bidjara and Birri-Gubba Juru woman. TBC
10:55 am	Morning Tea
11:15 am	Panel Discussion The Qld Human Rights Act – Rebecca Lang (Facilitator) Jackie Huggins Scott Wilson Dr Claire Brolan Aimee McVeigh
11.55am	Snapshots ADIS Sunrise Way Family Drug Support Gindaja Treatment and Healing Indigenous Corporation YETI
12.45 pm	Lunch
1.40pm	Breakout stream 1 A qualitative analysis of client perspectives on access to and engagement in Addiction Services	Stream 2 Young women, intimate partner violence and AOD	Stream 3 Lived experience session: What does a good and

DRAFT

	Julia Arnold, Metro South Addiction & Mental Health service	Bianca Johnston, Youth Support and Advocacy Service	bad experience of service look like from the perspective of people who use services?
	Becoming Trauma Informed: MNMH-ADS' Journey of Developing and Implementing a Model of Trauma Informed Care and Practice Dr Melissa Connell, Metro North Mental Health – Alcohol and Drug Service	The Youth Need Census- Queensland (ThYNC-Q): The First Comprehensive Study of Young People in Youth AOD Treatment in Queensland Cassie Davis, Dovetail
	Improving access to opioid replacement in residential rehabilitation - making medicine accessible Julie Fox and Michele Campbell, Lives Lived Well	Substance Use Treatments for Young People in Youth Mental Health Outpatient Settings: Preferences, Perceptions and Attitudes of Health Professionals Nicole Snowdon, Lives Lived Well
	Use of alcohol swabs to clean injecting sites among people who regularly inject drugs in Australia Ms Daisy Gibbs, National Drug and Alcohol Research Centre, UNSW	Using the body to get the mind back: Introducing sensory approaches to youth residential detox Jess Halloran and Liz Lowe, Clarence Street, Mater Young Adult Health Centre
3:10 pm	Afternoon Tea
3:30 pm	Keynote 2: AOD and primary care Mr Scott Wilson, CEO Aboriginal Drug and Alcohol Council SA, chair of NIDAC, Adjunct Associate Professor with the Indigenous Health and Alcohol Centre for Research Excellence
4:15 pm	Panel 2 Scott Wilson, CEO Aboriginal and Drug and Alcohol Council, South Australia Renee Blackman, Gidgee Healing Geoff Davey, QuIHN Ailsa Lively, Gindaja Treatment and Healing Indigenous Corporation
5:00 pm	Close and networking function

Friday, 26 July 2019
8:00 am	Registrations Open
8:30 am	Welcome and Recap and Housekeeping
8:45 am	Keynote 3 Ms Jenny Valentish
9:30 am	Plenary 3 Drug trends – Caroline Salom, University of Queensland QUANTEM – Peter Miller, Deakin 24/7 sobriety project – Beau Kilmer, RAND

DRAFT

10:30 am	Morning Tea
11.00am	Breakout stream 1	Breakout stream 2	Breakout stream 3
	System Navigation Project Holly Stokes, QNADA	Where does gambling fit in AOD – is it a hidden pleasure with a poisonous impact? Gerard Moloney, Lives Lived Well	The effectiveness of residential AOD treatment services: a review of recent evidence Dominique de Andrade, University of Queensland
	Hepatitis C Virus Cascade of Care among people who inject drugs: a cross-sectional study of characteristics associated with accessing testing, treatment, and completion in a universal healthcare system Ms Daisy Gibbs, National Drug and Alcohol Research Centre, UNSW	Women's attitudes to cannabis use during pregnancy: pleasure, medicine or poison? Maria Duggan, Drug Education Network	Lives Lived Well's Emerging Model of Alcohol and Other Drug (AOD) Treatment Grant Robin and Kirsty Braund, Lives Lived Well
	Heroin & Me: The evolution of roles and expectations inherent in a long-term relationship Dr James Rowe, RMIT University	QQueensland Alcohol-related violence and Night Time Economy Monitoring (QUANTEM): exploring the data A/Prof Jason Ferris, University of Queensland	Queensland Alcohol & Other Drug Treatment & Harm Reduction Outcomes Framework Sean Popovich, QNADA
Stretch2Engage Pilot organisations, TBC	Supporting 'Precontemplative Clients with Complex Needs through Assertive Engagement Dr Warren Harlow, Gold Coast Health and Hospital Service	The role of a Dual Diagnosis Co-ordinator within Child and Youth Mental Health Services (CYMHS) Laura Quinlan, Child and Youth Mental Health Service, Childrens Health Queensland Health and Hospital Service
12:20 pm	Lunch
1:15 pm	AWS Annual Trivia Competition
1:35 pm	Keynote 4 Mr Ivan Frkovic, Qld Mental Health Commissioner
2:15 pm	Panel 1 Festival safety
3:15 pm	Prizes Final speeches Thanks
3:30 pm	Close (takeaway afternoon tea)

DRAFT